OFFICES TO BE VOTED ON AND QUALIFICATIONS TO FILE

The City of Logan will hold its municipal election this fall to elect a mayor and two council members. Logan elections are non-partisan and there is no term limit. Council members serve four-year terms (January 2018 – January 2021) and are elected at-large.

Candidates must declare in person, except; a person who is a member of the active armed forces, or is employed with the State of the United States who is out of the State during the declaration of candidacy period may file for office by designating an agent to file the declaration form in person, while the person who is declaring candidacy communicates with the filing officer using an electronic device that allows the person and the filing officer to see and hear each other (e.g. Skype).

Any resident of a municipality may nominate a candidate by filing a nomination petition with the City Recorder. The petition must be signed by 25 residents of 20% of the residents who are at least 18 years old.

The appropriate filing form is available at the City Recorder's Office. There is no filing fee.

PERSONAL COMMITMENT

To perform effectively as a mayor and council member, you will need to budget your time wisely. You already know how much time is needed for your family and profession. However, few people realize how many hours are needed to conduct the official business of the City. In addition to the regularly scheduled council meetings, numerous informal meetings and work sessions are required to address special issues or problems. Council members also serve as representatives to the City's advisory boards and committees.

LOGAN'S FORM OF GOVERNMENT

The optional form of government known as the council-mayor form, adopted by the City of Logan in July 1975, vests power in two separate, independent and equal branches of government--the executive branch consisting of a mayor and administrative departments and offices; and the legislative branch consisting of a five-member council.

The mayor shall be the chief executive officer of the city and its official ceremonial head. The mayor's powers and duties include: supervising the administration and enforcement of all laws and ordinances of the city; executing policies adopted by the council; hiring and making all appointments regarding executive employees, administrative department heads, officers and agents; nominating board and commission members; administering all executive and administrative offices and departments of the city; coordinating functions of authorities and agencies; attending meetings of the council to inform them about conditions and needs of the city and to make recommendations for action; preparing annual budgets and reports; authorizing issuance of executive rules and regulations; supervising the purchase of materials or services and otherwise authorizing expenditures of funds on behalf of the city; and performing such other duties as may be prescribed or permitted by law.

The council adopts ordinances and resolutions, appropriates funds, approves long-term contracts or commitments of city resources; sets appropriate tax levies; adopts the city budget; sets sewer, water, power and other service rates; reviews municipal administration; and exercises other rights and responsibilities accorded the council by law.

The officers of the council are a chair and vice-chair. At the first council meeting on the first Tuesday of each year, or as near that time as possible, the council elects one of its members to be chair and another member to be vice-chair. All members of the council are eligible for nomination.

The council chair signs all ordinances, resolutions, correspondence or other documents on behalf of the council as a whole. The chair also signs other related items pertaining to council business; receives communications from the city and administration or others addressed to the council as a whole, and has the responsibility to see that all such communications are conveyed to other members of the council; and conducts all meetings of the council as a whole. At the council chair's request, the vice-chair has and exercises all the powers and authority of the chair.

Council members serve as directors of the Redevelopment Agency, and may serve as liaison to city boards, or may divide themselves into committees, the name, subject matter, and number as a majority of the municipal council shall direct.

ELECTED OFFICIAL'S COMPENSATION

The mayor receives a salary according to prevailing rates for comparable positions throughout the State of Utah, as determined by annual market survey. The current annual salary of the mayor is $86,278 plus benefits.

Members of the municipal council are currently paid an annual salary of $14,291 according to prevailing rates for comparable positions throughout the State of Utah as determined by annual market survey, as well as reimbursement for other expenses incurred while on city business.

CAMPAIGN LITERATURE

Please be aware that placing campaign literature inside residential mailboxes is a violation of federal postal standards. Anything placed in the mailbox must have proper postage attached and have been through the postal system. Any material found in the mailboxes will be removed by the postal carrier and, at the discretion of the postmaster, the offender may be charged with violation of federal postal standards. You are also encouraged to warn your campaign workers against the use of mailboxes for campaign literature. Feel free to check with the postmaster on any postal questions you have, including requests for assistance with mailing bulk rate campaign literature.

As directed in Utah Code Section 20A-7-801, Utah's Lieutenant Governor hosts a statewide electronic voter information website. You can create an online profile page that will provide information about you to the voters at <http://vote.utah.gov/vote/profile/login.html>. - Candidate submissions for vote.utah.gov are due by July 3, 2017 at 5:00 p.m. for the Primary Election and September 8, 2017 at 5:00 p.m. for the General Election.

ETHICS AND FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

The State has enacted the "Municipal Officers and Employees Disclosure Act" which establishes standards of conduct for elected and appointed officials. According to this act, elected or appointed officers or municipal employees may not:

1. Disclose or improperly use private, controlled, or protected information acquired by reason of their positions or in the course of official duties in order to further substantiate their personal economic interests or to secure special privileges or exemptions for themselves or others.
2. Use or attempt to use their positions to further substantiate their personal economic interests, or secure privileges for themselves or others.
3. Knowingly receive, accept, take, seek, or solicit, directly or indirectly for themselves or others a gift of substantial value or a substantial economic benefit tantamount to a gift (which is defined as a loan received at an interest rate that is substantially lower than the commercial rate, or compensation received for private services rendered at a rate substantially exceeding the fair market value of the services) that would tend to improperly influence a reasonable person to depart from the faithful and impartial discharge of the person's public duties; or the person knows or a reasonable person in the office should know that under the circumstances the gift is primarily for the purpose of rewarding the person for official action taken. This does not apply to:
  - a. An occasional nonpecuniary (nonmonetary) gift under $50 in value.
  - b. An award presented publicly in recognition for public service.
  - c. A bona fide loan in ordinary course of business.
  - d. Political campaign contributions.
4. Fail to disclose in public meeting any personal interests or investments by any elected or appointed officials of a municipality, which creates a conflict between officials' personal interests and their public duties.

Also according to the Act, a Disclosure Statement must be filed with the Mayor and proper notification must be given if any of the following situations exist:

1. City official or employee receives compensation for assisting any person or entity in a transaction involving the City. (Must be filed ten days before compensation is received or agreement is entered into.)
2. City official or employee is an officer, director, agent, employee, or owner of substantial interest (over $2,000) in business regulated by the City.
3. City official or employee is an officer, director, agent, employee, or owner of substantial interest in business, which does or anticipates doing business with the City.

Besides filing a disclosure statement, elected and appointed officials must also disclose their positions verbally in open meeting to the other members of the body to which they belong as well as immediately prior to any discussion involving the business or interest.

Certain penalties may be imposed for violation of the above requirements. They include:

1. Potential Second Degree Felony action.
2. Mandatory removal from office.
3. Rescission of transaction.

The complete text of the applicable State law and City ordinance is available for your reference at the City Recorder's Office. A sample of the disclosure statement form is included at the end of the Candidate's Guide.

PLEDGE OF FAIR CAMPAIGN PRACTICES
(SAMPLE)

There are basic principles of decency, honesty, and fair play which every candidate for public office in the State of Utah has a moral obligation to observe and uphold, in order that, after vigorously contested but fairly conducted campaigns, our citizens may exercise their right to a free election, and that the will of the people may be fully and clearly expressed on the issues.

THEREFORE:

I SHALL conduct my campaign openly and publicly, discussing the issues as I see them, presenting my record and policies with sincerity and frankness, and criticizing, without fear or favor, the record and policies of my opponents that I believe merit criticism.

I SHALL NOT use, nor shall I permit the use of, scurrilous attacks on any candidate or the candidate's immediate family. I shall not participate in, nor shall I permit the use of, defamation, libel, or slander against any candidate or the candidate's immediate family. I shall not participate in, nor shall I permit the use of, any other criticism of any candidate or the candidate's immediate family that I do not believe to be truthful, provable, and relevant to my campaign.

I SHALL NOT use, nor shall I permit the use of, any practice that tends to corrupt or undermine our American system of free elections, or that hinders or prevents the free expression of the will of the voters, including practices intended to hinder or prevent any eligible person from registering to vote or voting.

I SHALL NOT coerce election help or campaign contributions for myself or for any other candidate from my employees or volunteers.

I SHALL immediately and publicly repudiate support deriving from any individual or group which resorts, on behalf of my candidacy or in opposition to that of an opponent, to methods in violation of the letter or spirit of this pledge. I shall accept responsibility to take firm action against any subordinate who violates any provision of this pledge or the laws governing elections.

I SHALL defend and uphold the right of every qualified American voter to full and equal participation in the electoral process.

I, the undersigned, candidate for election to public office in the State of Utah, hereby voluntarily endorse, subscribe to, and solemnly pledge myself to conduct my campaign in accordance with the above principles and practices."
