

BOA CONSTRICTOR

Boa constrictor

Central & South America

The Boa Constrictor is closely related to the python and normally grows to a length of 10 feet. Its keen sense of smell is used to detect the presence of other animals. It kills its prey by suffocating it.