

COMMON RAVEN

Corvus corax

North America

Ravens are our largest song-bird and are often mistaken for a crow. Ravens are much larger with shaggy feathers around the throat. The raven also shows a wedge-shaped tail, while the crow has a rounded tail.