

GREEN-WINGED TEAL

Anas crecca carolinensis

North America

The iridescent green on the inner secondary wing feathers gives this very small duck its name. Green-winged Teal are quite common in our area, especially during nesting season.