

SWAINSON'S HAWK

Buteo swainsoni

Western North America

Swainson's Hawks have the second longest migration of any raptor. They migrate over 12,000 miles every year between breeding grounds in Canada to wintering grounds in Argentina. This trip can be done in less than 2 months.