

TEMMINCK'S TRAGOPAN

Tragopan temmincki

Southeast Asia

Tragopans are mainly arboreal and prefer perching and laying their eggs in elevated nests. The male is known for his elaborate frontal display in which he shows off his bright blue wattles, horns, and lappet.