

VILLAGE WEAVER

Ploceus cucullatus

Southern Africa

These birds weave pear-shaped hanging nests in the branches of trees using leaves and grasses. A nesting colony is an impressive sight. Males often fight during nest building activities.