

VIOLACEOUS PLANTAIN EATER

Musophaga violacea

Western Africa

This is a very agile bird that prefers to run along branches, hopping from tree to tree. Their outside toes are reversible, allowing the bird to move out onto the tips of branches where it finds the best fruit.