LEGAL NOTICE

SUMMARIES of ordinances adopted by the Logan Municipal Council are as follows:
1. ORD. 00-75 REVISED. An ordinance was adopted October 18, 2000 amending Logan Municipal Code, 1989 to include Section 7-52.040, "Regulation of Impounding and Booting Practices." It was amended November 15, 2000 to clarify language. Also, subsection "F" was added dealing with landlords who engage a private parking enforcement company to boot illegally parked vehicles on their property. They are required to inform tenants of the booting practice and make available instruction on how to comply with the law by providing:
   A. Permits and instructions as to where to display them;
   B. Written schedule of fees charged by parking enforcement company;
   C. Instructions regarding visitor parking or where information if none is available;
   D. Method of replacing lost permit.
   Violation of the ordinance section is a Class B Misdemeanor.

2. ORD. 00-88. An ordinance was adopted November 15, 2000 to amend Section 6.12.180, "Dogs Running at Large" to include other animals as well as dogs. The ordinance provides that it shall be the absolute responsibility of those who keep dogs or other animals to prevent them from running at large in the city. It stipulates that it is unlawful for any person to own, harbor or keep dogs or other animals which run at large in the city or to permit dogs or other animals to run at large. It also prohibits the sale of dogs or other animals to persons under the age of 18 years.

This ordinance is contingent on the dedication of all rights-of-way necessary for the realignment of the new 100 West Street, including sidewalks and parking strips to City Standards. These ordinances shall become effective upon publication.

Full text of these ordinances may be reviewed at the Office of the Logan City Recorder, City Hall, 255 North Main, Logan, UT during regular office hours.

RE: Old Field Road Vacation

Pursuant to Sec. 10.8.8, Utah Code Annotated, the City received written requests from property owners that the City vacate a portion of the "Old Field Road" right-of-way. Therefore, the four-week publication as a legal notice in the newspaper prior to the meeting in which the ordinance was adopted was unnecessary.
