LEGAL NOTICE

SUMMARIES OF ORDINANCES amending the Logan Municipal Code, 1989, passed by the Logan Municipal Council, as follows:

1. ORD. 99-3. An ordinance was passed January 20, 1999 approving the first chapters of the Land Development Code containing basic provisions for implementation of the Code. Article I, General Provisions, replaces current chapters 17.01 and 17.04: (1) Establishing the official name of Title 17; (2) Stating the purpose; (3) Restating existing prohibition in the sale or transfer of illegal lots; (4) Repealing existing provision of mandatory General Plan zoning conformance; (5) Indicating the code applies to all development in Logan; (6) Repealing the state provision that zoning and subdivision regulations are minimum standards: Chapter 17.02; Transitional Provisions, addresses how the City will deal with planning projects in process when the complete code goes into effect; 17.03, Conflicting Provisions, defined how to interpret the code when there are conflicts.

2. ORD. 99-4. An ordinance was passed and approved January 27, 1999 amending 8.04.001, Uniform Code Adopted. The ordinance adopts the 1997 edition of the Uniform Fire Code, which is the latest edition.

3. ORD. 99-7. An ordinance amending the Zoning Map of Logan City was passed January 20, 1999, adopting Amendment #12 rezoning 3.9 acres, or seven lots, owned by Utah State University, from PUB-USU (Public-Use University) to SFT (Single Family Residential) at approximately 1300 North 1400 East and identified as 7TH 05-100-0006.

4. ORD. 99-8. An ordinance was passed and approved January 27, 1999 amending 2.38.010 to increase the number of neighborhood council areas from five to six and establishing a council of six persons chosen by the Mayor with the advice and consent of the County. The ordinance provides that one member of the neighborhood council must be a student residing in Logan selected to represent the student population of Utah State University.

5. ORD. 99-10. An ordinance repealing portions of Chapter 15.28 of the Logan Municipal Code and enacting Chapter 17.40, Logan Sign Code, was adopted February 5, 1999. The ordinance specifically addresses signs and regulators attached to the specific types of signs. Prohibited signs are specifically addressed. Enforcement of the law, sign measurement, placement, design and the permit process are also outlined, the ordinance requires that all signs with a value of $500 or more shall be installed by a licensed sign contractor. The ordinance implements "zone system enforcement" as a critical component. A footnote states: "The City will work with the Chamber of Commerce to try and resolve potential problems and non-compliance issues before formal enforcement is used. The concept is to try and attain the objectives of the sign ordinance through cooperation. Regulatory controls are in the ordinance, but the revised ordinance contains language to require cooperative methods to be used first".

Full texts of the above ordinances may be reviewed at the Office of the Logan City Recorder, City Hall, 265 N. Main, during regular business hours.
