

Tom Jensen

Tom is well known for community leadership and service spanning over 34 years. As a professional architect with 45 years experience, he brings planning skills to the council. After graduating from Cornell University, Tom founded his professional practice in Logan in 1980, which became one of the largest and most respected in the region. He has been an adjunct professor at USU and at the American University of Madaba in Jordan. He now does business development for Wadman Construction.

As a result of Tom's passion for problem solving and improving the community, he led numerous community planning efforts including Chairman of Cache 2010 Strategic Plan and Cache Valley Initiative, Co-chair of Envision Cache Valley, and was on the steering committee of the South Corridor Development Plan and the Logan Downtown Specific Plan. Tom's civic involvement includes terms as President of Logan Downtown Alliance, Cache Chamber of Commerce and Logan Rotary. He's served on the boards of Cache Valley Arts, Logan Library, Sunshine Terrace and Logan Regional Hospital. Tom has also served on the boards of Economic Development of Utah and Envision Utah. In 1994 Tom was named the Total Citizen of the Year by the Cache Chamber of Commerce and received the Community Service Award by the USU Community Associates in 2007.

Tom has served six years on the Logan Municipal Council and feels the Council is working well in efforts to revitalize our town center, stabilize neighborhoods and relieve traffic congestion. " We have a number of projects that need to be completed. I believe my experience is invaluable at this time."

Tom is known as a good listener who wants to fully understand all sides of difficult issues and make fair, impartial decisions.

With seven candidates running, Tom says, "you can vote for three...two others and me."
